Payment

Indicate below if legal aid is sought for a legal aid lawyer assisting with this application. If approved, a user charge will apply to certain civil and family legal aid matters as required by legislation. You may have to repay some or all of your legal aid depending on your income and assets and whether you receive any proceeds from your case.

10. Legal aid is sought. Yes No

Where you have not already been granted aid, aid may only be available if the reconsideration is about a decision on the merits or interests of justice of an application for legal aid. In other situations where legal aid has not been granted a fresh application for civil legal aid will be required. Requests for aid may be made up to 20 working days after receiving the reconsidered decision. Any request for aid that is not made within that time frame, but is within 3 months of the decision, must explain the special circumstances that prevented the request being made within 20 working days.
