SELF-COMPLETION SECTION

The next section is concerned with people's experiences as victims of some other kinds of crime, which we have not discussed yet. Some of the questions asked are very personal. Because of this we are asking you to continue the survey by entering your answers directly into the computer.

This section is designed to be as easy as possible for people to complete, even if they don't use a computer.

- Please be as honest as possible. It is important that we have a complete picture of what happens to people.
- Your answers are totally confidential and will not be seen by me unless you ask me to help you.
- Your answers will be put together with those of other people to show the results.
- Even if you have not experienced any incidents of the type you will be asked about, we still need to know that. In this case, you will only need to answer a few questions.

Q163

SECTION 1: VIOLENCE BY A PARTNER

INTRODUCTION & SCREENERS

Q167.417 Most of the following questions are about things that might have happened to you since 1st January 2013, but some questions relate to things that may have happened earlier.

- We only want to know about things which have happened to you personally.

- We don't just want to know about serious things - we want to know about small things too.

If you are unsure how to fill your answers in, feel free to ask the interviewer to help you.

In this section, we are interested in learning about New Zealanders' experience of violence by people who were partners at the time it happened. International research suggests that this is much more common than violence by strangers. We need to know if this is so in New Zealand too.

First, can you please say whether you are currently in a marital or similar partnership.

① If you wish to go back to an answer please click the '↔ Back' button at the bottom of the screen.

① Once an answer is recorded please click 'Continue ⇒' at the bottom of the screen. The next question will then appear.

SECTION 3: SEXUAL INCIDENTS

INTRODUCTION & SCREENERS

Other stressful events are unwanted sexual advances. These are not always reported to the police, or even discussed with family, partners or friends. The person making these advances is not always a stranger, but can be a partner, friend or family member. Such experiences can occur any time in one's life - even as a child.

This next section asks about some unwanted sexual experiences you may have had. You may find the questions disturbing or distressing. But it is important to ask them because it will give a clearer idea of how often such incidents happen.

Remember the information you give is confidential. Even if you have not experienced any incidents of the type we are going to ask about, we still need to know that. In this case, you will only need to answer a few questions.
