

Restorative Justice Service Review: 2021 summary

This year, the project team engaged with participants and provider groups to gather insights about their experience with the restorative justice service. Here are some of the milestones the project team have achieved this year...

So far in 2021, we...

Interviewed:
• 10 Provider managers
• 17 Facilitators
• 4 Kaupapa Māori providers

Received a total of 1,735 hits on the project webpages (JET and external site)

Interviewed 34 RJ participants through Colmar Brunton:
• 17 offenders
• 17 victims

Travelled 5,173km to interview providers and attend project hui

Conducted 41 hours of interviews

Released five newsletters to service providers

Published a quantitative survey for providers, lawyers, and court staff in December 2021

Developed and sent two letters to the Heads of Bench (Judiciary)

In 2022, we will be focusing on...

Interviewing Judiciary

Interviewing and surveying the police

Interviewing and surveying court staff

Conducting data analysis

Writing up the recommendations report

Want to know more? Email us at RJServiceReview@justice.govt.nz or visit our project page