

IN THE MATTER OF

Complaint by The Police under s 74 of the Private Security Personnel and Private Investigators Act 2010 against
ANDREW FALETOLU

DECISION

[1] The police have laid a complaint against Andrew Mr Faletolu as they consider he is no longer suitable to be a certificate holder. Mr Faletolu has amassed 58 separate convictions since 1987 including convictions for offences of violence, dishonesty, and drugs. Since being granted a certificate Mr Faletolu's has been convicted of driving while disqualified for the 11th time. He is also facing other driving offences.

[2] In addition to his driving offences Mr Faletolu has been convicted on three charges of breach of community work and for breaching the conditions of his community detention since August 2020. Mr Faletolu also wrongly declared in his application for a certificate that he had no convictions. Making a false statement in his application for a certificate is discretionary grounds for cancelling Mr Faletolu's certificate of approval.

[3] Mr Faletolu neither responded to the police complaint nor attended the hearing into the complaint. Based on the evidence before me I am satisfied that Mr Faletolu is no longer suitable to be a responsible security employee. I accordingly make the following orders:

- a) Mr Faletolu's certificate of approval is cancelled effective immediately.
- b) Mr Faletolu is to return his certificate and official ID to the Authority within 7 days of the receipt of this order.

DATED at Wellington this 17th day of November 2022

P A McConnell

Private Security Personnel Licensing Authority