Na	me of Appellant:
	Decision being appealed: [Describe the decision against which you are appealing. You may appeal against the sentencing court- making an extended supervision order (section 1071 of the Parole Act 2002); or declining to cancel an extended supervision order (section 107M of the Parole Act 2002); or ordering for a specified period that you not be permitted to apply for the cancellation of the extended supervision order to which you are subject (section 10M(6) of the Parole Act 2002); or
Da	tte of decision:
	TO THE REGISTRAR OF THE COURT OF APPEAL.
Co	the above-named appellant, give you notice under section 107R of the Parole Act 2002 that I wish to appeal to the urt of Appeal against the decision described above on the grounds set out below, and I give answers as follows to the lowing questions:
1.	(a) Is any lawyer now acting for you?
	(b) If so, give his or her name and address and fax number:
	(c) Have you applied, or do you intend to apply, to the Legal Services Agency for a grant of legal aid?
2.	If you are currently in a penal institution, which one?
3.	If you do not currently have a lawyer, what is your current postal address and fax number (if any)?
4.	(a) If you are in custody, and are granted an oral hearing, do you wish to apply for leave to be present?
	(b) If so, what are your reasons for seeking leave to be present?

(u)	Do you wish to apply for leave to call any witnesses on your appeal?
(b)	If so, then state –
	(i) the name and address of the witness(es):
	(ii) whether the witness(es) gave evidence at the trial:
	(iii) if not, the reason why the witness(es) did not give evidence:
	(iv) on what matters you wish the witness(es) to give evidence:
	(v) briefly, what evidence you think the witness(es) can give:
You	have 28 days from the date on which you were sentenced in which to file your notice of appeal with the Court of beal. The Court may extend this time. If your appeal is out of time, what are your reasons for saying that the Cou	should nevertheless extend the time and consider your appeal?

8. I	include in this notice of appeal anything that is relevant to the decision about whether your appeal should be onsidered at an oral hearing or be dealt with on the papers, such as –
(a	a)	whether you have been assisted by counsel in preparing your appeal:
(1	b)	whether you have been provided with copies of the relevant trial documentation:
(0	c)	the gravity of the offence:
(0	d)	the nature and complexity of the issues raised by your appeal:
(6	e)	whether any evidence should be called:
(1	f)	any relevant cultural or personal factors.
Dated	this	day of 20
Signature of Appellant:

Note: Your appeal will be considered at an oral hearing (ie, a hearing at which oral submissions may be made) unless the Court or a Judge determines that the appeal can be fairly dealt with on the papers and either has no realistic prospect of success or clearly should be allowed. In that case, the appeal will be dealt with at a hearing on the papers. This is a hearing at which the Court makes its decision solely on the basis of the written material before it.
