

Application for attachment order

When should I use this form?

This form lets you apply to recover a judgment debt directly from the judgment debtor's income. Use this form if all the following apply:

- you are either the judgment creditor or the judgment debtor
- the money owed in a judgment or court order has not been paid
- you want a simple, cheap enforcement solution
- you can provide the required information for an attachment order to be made – as set out in Section A of this form.

How do I complete this form?

This form has three sections:

- Section A is for information required to process your application. You must complete all the steps in Section A.
- Section B is for the date and your signature. You must complete Section B.
- Section C is for extra information to assist the enforcement process. You only need to complete the steps in Section C that are relevant to your application.
- You can only use this form to apply for one attachment order against one debtor. If you have more than one debtor, you must file a separate application for each debtor.

Who can sign this form?

You can only sign this form if you are the applicant or the applicant's lawyer. The applicant can be either the judgment creditor or the judgment debtor. Anyone can help you complete the rest of the form.

How much does it cost to make an application?

The application fee is $50. If the applicant is the judgment creditor, the court can order the judgment debtor to repay the fee.

KEY WORDS

Below are explanations of some of the words we use in this application form.

Attachment order A court order requiring an employer to deduct a specified amount or percentage from a judgment debtor's salary, wages or benefit. The deduction is paid directly to the judgment creditor (or other nominated payee).

Court order Issued by a court or tribunal that requires a person or organisation to do, or stop doing, something.

Enforcement Action authorised by a court to get the judgment debtor to comply with a judgment or court order.

Judgment The decision of a judge in court proceedings. It also includes the reasons the judge gives for their decision.

Judgment creditor The person or organisation money is owed to in a judgment or court order.

Judgment debt The sum of money awarded to the successful party (the judgment creditor) in a judgment or court order. The money is owed to the judgment creditor by the unsuccessful party (the judgment debtor).

Judgment debtor The person or organisation who owes money in a judgment or court order.

How do I file my application?

You can file your application by post or in person. You must also serve a copy of your application on the other party, by post, email or handing a copy to the other party.

You must pay the filing fee with your application. If you want to pay by credit or debit card please complete the payment details section in this form.

By post

Post your application to:
Central Registry,
DX SX10042
Wellington.

In person

See justice.govt.nz/contact-us/find-us/ for the address of your nearest District Court.

What are the next steps after making an application?

The court will make a decision based on the information supplied in the application form.

If the attachment order is made, the order will be issued to the judgment debtor's employer and a copy sent to the judgment creditor and debtor. The employer must make the deductions and payments specified in the attachment order.
