

Filing a new address for service

When should I use this form?

This form lets you file a new address for service where a summons or warrant has not been able to be actioned using the original address provided for the judgment debtor. Use this form if all the following apply:

- you are the judgment creditor and you have filed an enforcement application where a summons or warrant has been issued to a bailiff to attempt service
- the summons or warrant has not been able to be actioned and you have been asked to supply a new address
- you can provide an alternative address for the judgment debtor.

How much does it cost to make a request?

The fee is $50. The court can order the judgment debtor to repay the fee, provided that a maximum of one fee only is added to the judgment debt.

You can only use this form to file one address for one debtor. If you have more than one debtor, you must file a separate address for each debtor.

How do I make my request?

You can make your request by post or in person. If you want to pay by credit or debit card please complete the payment details section in this form.

By post

Post your application to:
Central Registry,
DX SX10042
Wellington.

In person

See justice.govt.nz/contact-us/find-us for the address of your nearest District Court.

What are the next steps after filing a new address for service?

The court will issue the summons or warrant with the updated address which will be forwarded to a bailiff for service.
