

Application for warrant to recover chattels

When should I use this form?

This form lets you apply for a warrant that will enable a bailiff to recover and return chattels to the person named in the judgment or court order. Use this form if all the following apply:

- you have a judgment or court order saying that chattels are to be returned to you but you have not yet received them
- you can provide an address for the defendant or you have been advised that the Ministry of Justice has found an address.

How do I complete this form?

This form has three sections:

- Section A is for information required to process your application. You must complete all the steps in Section A.
- Section B is for the date and your signature. You must complete Section B.
- Section C is for extra information to assist the enforcement process. You only need to complete the steps in Section C that are relevant to your application.
- You can only use this form to apply for one warrant for one defendant. If you have more than one defendant, you must file a separate application for each defendant.

Who can sign this form?

You can only sign this form if you are the plaintiff or their lawyer. Anyone can help you complete the rest of the form.

How much does it cost to make an application?

The application fee is $200.

What other costs are involved?

When chattels are returned there may be other costs incurred. These costs are payable by the plaintiff.
