Step 2 Your identification

Please attach a clear photocopy of your identification. It must show your signature. This can be any one of the following:

New Zealand Driver Licence – can be current or expired within the last 2 years, but cannot be cancelled, defaced or a temporary licence.

New Zealand Passport – can be current or expired within the last 2 years, but cannot be cancelled or defaced. Must show your signature.

Overseas Passports – must be current and cannot be expired, cancelled or defaced. Must show your signature.

New Zealand Firearms Licence – must be current and cannot be expired or defaced.

If you do not have any of these forms of identification, you will need to ask someone who can confirm your identity to fill in Step 5.

Step 3 Full record of convictions

If you have any criminal convictions, they will not appear on your criminal conviction history if you meet the all the criteria of the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004, unless you specifically request it below.

Tick this box if you want to receive a full record of your criminal convictions held on the Ministry of Justice's computer systems. For example where this is a requirement for immigration or to get a visa from a foreign country.

I authorise the Criminal Records Unit, Ministry of Justice under the Privacy Act 1993, to provide me with the details of any criminal convictions I may have which are held on the Ministry of Justice's computer systems.
