

Who experiences crime in New Zealand?

New Zealand Crime and Victims survey

HELP CREATE SAFER COMMUNITIES

CYCLE 1 | 2018

29% OF NEW ZEALANDERS EXPERIENCED CRIME OVER THE LAST 12 MONTHS.

MALES AND FEMALES WERE EQUALLY LIKELY TO EXPERIENCE CRIME.

Māori were more likely to experience crime whereas Chinese people were less likely.

Those who felt safer were less likely to experience crime.

Those with higher levels of psychological distress were more likely to experience crime.

Those living in more highly deprived neighbourhoods were more likely to experience crime.

Single parent households were more likely to experience crime whereas households with only one couple were less likely.

Young adults (20-29) were more likely to experience crime whereas older adults (65 and over) were less likely.

Those with higher life satisfaction are less likely to experience crime.

Those who identify as gay, lesbian, or bisexual were more likely to experience crime

Those under more financial pressure are more likely to experience crime.