Official Information Act request: Damage to court houses

Thank you for your email of 30 May 2023, requesting, under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act), information damage to courthouses. Specifically, you requested:

- 1. The number of instances where a member of the public has caused damage to a courthouse or courthouse amenities, what the person damaged and at which courthouse, and what the approximate cost of repair was for each incident, broken down by year between 2017 and 2022.*
- 2. That information relating to damage where it hasn't necessarily been attributed to a member of the public but occurred within a public space of the courthouse be included.*
- 3. The total cost for repairs to courthouses from damage identified as being caused by a member of the public, each year, between 2017 and 2022.*

In response to the first part your request, please see Table 1 in the attached material for release. The table details the damage which has occurred, by court location, from mid-2018 to 2023. Please note that only data from mid-2018 onwards can be provided which is when our current property database was implemented. The data has been provided by the Ministry's national facility maintenance provider and may contain instances where items are included which were not caused by intentional damage.

In response to the second part of your request, please see Table 2 below. Table 2 provides the cost breakdown by year.

Table 2 – Repair costs to courthouses from damage incurred broken down by year

| Year | Sum of total amount |
|--------------------|----------------------------|
| 2018 | $98,231.30 |
| 2019 | $333,505.53 |
| 2020 | $250,243.61 |
