Criminal case process

This flowchart sets out the process for an adult criminal case in the District or High Court under the Criminal Procedure Act 2011. Because every case is different not all cases will follow this path exactly.

Offences are categorised 1, 2, 3 or 4 by the seriousness of the offence. The offence categories determine what type of trial is available to the defendant.

- Fine only offences. Judge-alone trial.
- Offences punishable by a communitybased sentence or less than two years in prison. Judge-alone trial.
- Offences punishable by two years or more in prison unless listed in Schedule 1 of the Act. Judge-alone trial (or defendant can elect jury trial).
- Offences listed in Schedule 1 of the Act.

Pre-trial hearing

Jury trial
District Court or High Court

Jury trial
High Court

The new and changed terms introduced by the Criminal Procedure Act 2011.

Defendant

The person charged with an offence.

Charging document

Document filed by prosecution alleging an offence.

CMM - case management memorandum

A memorandum setting out the particulars of a case, including any change in plea or charges, request for sentence indication, transfer to High Court (protocol offence), trial arrangements, disclosure and pre-trial applications. It is jointly completed by prosecution and defence counsel, and filed by the defence counsel.

Case review hearing

A hearing at which any matters raised in the CMM (case management memorandum) can be addressed.

Crown prosecution

A proceeding for an offence which must be prosecuted by the Crown.

Judge-alone trial

A trial conducted by a judge or judicial officer, without a jury. Previously called a defended hearing. This is the default trial for category 1, 2 and 3 offences, although a defendant charged with a category 3 offence may elect jury trial.

Jury trial

A trial conducted with a jury. This is the default trial for category 4, and by election for category 3.

Offence categories

Offences are categorised 1-4 by the seriousness of the offence. This categorisation replaces summary/indictable.

Pre-trial admissibility hearing

A hearing to determine the admissibility of evidence before a trial.

Prosecutor

The person who is conducting the case against the defendant.

Protocol offence

Offences that must always be considered for transfer to the High Court.

TCM - trial callover memorandum

A memorandum setting out the trial management information, including length, pre-trial applications, witnesses and disclosure. It is filed individually, by both the prosecution and defence.
